THE PARKINSON'S INSTITUTE

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA-SAN JOSE DIVISION

LYNDA FRAYO,

Plaintiff,

vs.

THE PARKINSON'S INSTITUTE, a
California Corporation, and DOES 1-50,

Defendants.

CASE NO.: C-07-04942-JF

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER AND PROTECTIVE ORDER THEREON

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and among the undersigned parties through their respective attorneys of record:

1. The parties are entering into this stipulation because requests have been made for documents that contain confidential and proprietary information. The purpose of this stipulation is to provide for a method to allow said documents to be produced in a manner to preserve their confidential nature.

2. Any of the aforesaid documents and testimony or information relating thereto (including depositions) furnished herewith may be stamped or designated "Confidential" or "Attorneys Only-Confidential" by any party to this action. Any document, testimony or other information stamped or designated as "Confidential" or "Attorneys Only-Confidential" material shall only be disclosed as permitted by this protective order.

1           3.       “Attorneys Only-Confidential” material may be exhibited to and discussed with 2 only the qualified persons set forth in paragraphs 4(a) and (b) below. “Confidential” material may 3 be exhibited to and discussed with only the qualified persons set forth in 4(a), (b) and ( c) below.

4           4.       “Qualified person” as used herein means:

5               (a)     The Judge and court personnel, including court reporters and persons 6 operating video recording equipment at depositions;

7               (b)     The attorneys of record and associated attorneys for the parties to this 8 litigation, the employees including consultants or experts of such attorneys to whom it is necessary 9 that the material be shown for the purposes of this litigation; and 10              (c)     The parties to this action.

11           5.       A party shall not be obligated to challenge the propriety of a “Confidential” or 12 “Attorneys Only-Confidential” designation at the time made and a failure to do so shall not 13 preclude a subsequent challenge thereto. In the event that any party to this litigation disagrees at 14 any stage of these proceedings with the designation by the supplying party of “Confidential” or 15 “Attorneys Only-Confidential,” the parties shall try first to dispose of such dispute in good faith on 16 an informal basis. If the dispute cannot be resolved, the objecting party may seek appropriate 17 relief from the Judge or Arbitrator.

18           6.       If a party, or his or her counsel, desires to designate all or any portion of the 19 deposition testimony regarding that party deemed to be “Confidential” or “Attorneys Only-20 Confidential,” it may do so by advising the reporter at the time of the taking of the deposition at 21 which such “Confidential” or “Attorneys Only-Confidential” testimony is given. The parties shall 22 have five business days from receipt of the deposition transcript to provide written designation to 23 the other parties of any additional portions of the deposition, not so designated during the 24 deposition, deemed to be ‘Confidential’ or ‘Attorneys Only-Confidential.’ In the event that a party 25 or third party was present when such later designated testimony was given, such individual(s) shall 26 be informed of the new designation and shall not disclose the information to any other party, nor 27 use the information in any way. If any “Confidential” or “Attorneys Only-Confidential” 28 documents or material are used or disclosed in any testimony given in this proceeding, portions of

1 the testimony disclosing or reflecting such material shall be designated in the same manner as the 2 underlying material. The reporter shall separately transcribe the portions of testimony so
3 designated and shall mark the face of the transcript with the word "Confidential" or "Attorneys
4 Only-Confidential." Only qualified persons as defined in paragraph 4 above may be present
5 during portions of deposition testimony designated as "Confidential" or "Attorneys Only-6 Confidential."

7 7. In the event that a party wishes to use in the Trial or Arbitration any document, 8 testimony or other information produced by it or another party which is stamped "Confidential" or 9 "Attorneys Only-Confidential," such document, testimony or other information, and any brief, 10 deposition or any other paper filed in this action which discloses the contents of "Confidential" or 11 "Attorneys Only-Confidential" material shall be filed in accordance with the agreement of the 12 parties and Judge or Arbitrator.

13 8. At the conclusion of the above-entitled action, any originals and reproductions or 14 any documents, testimony or information subject to this protective order shall not be retained by 15 the receiving party and either shall be destroyed or returned to the producing party. The provisions 16 of this protective order insofar as they restrict the communication and use of the documents, 17 testimony or information produced hereunder shall, unless otherwise stipulated in writing for 18 further order of the Court, continue to be binding after the conclusion of this action.

19 9. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to prohibit any producing party from later 20 seeking relief from an inadvertent and/or unintentional disclosure of "Confidential" or "Attorneys 21 Only-Confidential" materials.

22 10. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, this protective order shall be without 23 prejudice to the right of any party to challenge the propriety of discovery on other grounds, and 24 nothing contained herein shall be construed as a waiver of any objection which might be raised as 25 to the admissibility at trial of any evidentiary material.

26 11. Nothing in this stipulation and order shall be construed to abrogate, limit or 27 supersede any other confidentiality agreements relating to confidential information, including but 28 not limited to Non-Disclosure Agreements entered into with any third party on behalf of any party

1 to this litigation.
